CITY OF PORT COQUITLAM

REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE

During the First World War, recruits for the B.C. Horse gathered in front of Kelly's Hall and the Coquitlam Hotel on Dewdney Trunk Road (now Kingsway Avenue).

Three of the Port Coquitlam soldiers we honour today served with the B.C. Horse.

O Canada

O Canada!
Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all of us command.

With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The true north strong and free!

From far and wide,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Lest We Forget

We honour these individuals who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country. We will remember them.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.
