WHAT IS A SOUND BATH?

A Sound Bath is an immersive experience that "Bathes" the listener with soundwaves using singing bowls tuned to a frequency of 432Hz. This frequency taps into the central nervous system and vagus nerve, slowing the flow of the stress hormone cortisol, lowering blood pressure, reducing anxiety and stress, leaving the listener with a profound sense of peace, mental clarity, better sleep quality and overall mental wellness.

135812 T 1:30–2:30pm Feb 9

PHYSIO AT HOME

How to get the most out of walking. Is walking your main source of exercise? Have you ever wondered whether it's enough? Join Jillian Bergman Stow, Registered Physiotherapist, for an interactive presentation on making walking a more effective and enjoyable part of your exercise routine. Discover practical ways to improve your strength, balance, heart health, and overall well–being and learn which other types of movement are important to include alongside walking.

As Above So Below

by Olivia Harks

Michael Wright Art Gallery | #200-2253 Leigh Square
January 15, 2027 – April 1, 2027

In this solo exhibition Olivia Harks explores the complexities of the human experience through evocative imagery, symbolism, and expressive use of light and shadow. Drawing inspiration from mythology, history, and cultural storytelling, her work re-examines how women have been portrayed throughout time, inviting audiences to reconsider these narratives through a contemporary lens.

Through figures, textiles, objects, and abstracted forms, Harks creates layered visual narratives that challenge traditional perspectives and reclaim the complexity of women's experiences, leaving space for reflection and personal interpretation.

Between Bearings

by Boyan Baynov & Christopher Aitken

Outlet Gallery | #110-2248 McAllister Ave
January 8, 2027 – April 1, 2027

Between Bearings is a collaborative exhibition by photographer Boyan Baynov and abstract artist Christopher Aitken exploring their connections to place through memory, perception, and experience. Bringing together photography and abstract painting, the artists interpret landscape as both a physical environment and an emotional experience. Through distinct artistic approaches, their works invite viewers to reflect on how personal experiences shape the ways we see, remember, and relate to the places around us.

Discover the vibrant art scene by visiting the Michael Wright Art Gallery (MWAG), Outlet Gallery, City Hall Gallery, and Port Coquitlam Community Centre—where local and regional artists bring fresh, inspiring exhibitions throughout the year. Our galleries ignite creativity and dialogue, playing a vital role in the cultural life of Port Coquitlam. Whether you're a long-time art lover or just curious, there's always something new to explore. Dive into the world of art and find out what's going on by visiting portcoquitlam.ca/exhibitions for more information.

The Practice of Tenderness

by Angel Yau

City Hall Gallery | 2580 Shaughnessy St
January 8, 2027 – April 1, 2027

In The Practice of Tenderness, Angel Yau explores themes of emotional healing, memory, and self-discovery through expressive paintings featuring a recurring child in a red dress set against expansive landscapes. Reflecting on the journey of reconnecting with oneself, her work considers how we can transform our relationship with the past, rediscover joy, and embrace tenderness as a source of strength. Through quiet, hopeful imagery, Yau invites viewers to reflect on the beauty of new beginnings and the possibility of choosing a more authentic path.

Where Silence Rests

by Zhong Liu

Port Coquitlam Community Centre | 2150 Wilson Ave
January 7, 2027 – May 31, 2027

In Where Silence Rests, photographer Liu Zhong explores the quiet beauty of nature through black-and-white landscape photography and long exposures. Captured across British Columbia, Canadian national parks, and Antarctica, the images reveal the interplay of light, shadow, time, and movement. Drawing on traditional photographic techniques, Zhong invites viewers to pause and reflect on the stillness, beauty, and impermanence of the natural world. Where Silence Rests was first presented at the Richmond City Hall Galleria in 2026.
