

Downtown Heritage Walking Tour

HERITAGE WALKING TOUR STOPS

|                                 |   |                                   |    |
|---------------------------------|---|-----------------------------------|----|
| Terry Fox Library               | 1 | Site of Alderman Lobb home (1911) | 8  |
| Rowland Lacrosse Box            | 2 | 1912 classic box-style home       | 9  |
| City's first vicarage (1911)    | 3 | 1910 Craftsman-style home         | 10 |
| 1922 pioneer-style cottage      | 4 | 1922 Craftsman bungalow           | 11 |
| 1913 pioneer-style cottage      | 5 | 1912 frame-style home             | 12 |
| 1910 classic box-style home     | 6 | Central School (1914, 4 rooms)    | 13 |
| Late 1800s Queen Anne Victorian | 7 | City Hall (1914, Edwardian style) | 14 |

Make sure to check out the historical murals and other points of interest in the downtown core, as marked on the map above.

Downtown Heritage Walking Tour

STARTING POINT

Downtown Port Coquitlam

ROUTE

- This self-guided tour includes some of the first homes and important buildings in the community
- Start at any point on the map (opposite page) and plan your own route

DIFFICULTY

Easy

DISTANCE

3-km loop

TERRAIN

Level paved roads, sidewalks and walkways

HIGHLIGHTS

- Various first homes and important buildings
- Important points of interest and historical murals
- Access to Traboulay PoCo Trail

INTERACTIVE MAP

www.pocomuseum.org/tour2.html

GUIDED WALKING TOURS

The Port Coquitlam Heritage and Cultural Society offers free guided walking tours of this route. For more information, email pocoheritage@portcoquitlam.ca or call 604.942.7611.

